Publisher's Note

This collection of Questions and Answers on the Seerah of Ummahât-ul-Mu'mineen رضي الله عنهن (the Mothers of believers — may Allâh be pleased with them) is part of our scheme to publish a new series of questions and answers on various aspects of Islam and righteous Muslims of the ancient predecessors.

A Muslim reader who wishes to check his knowledge about his religion and its first followers can confidently make use of such a collection as this.

We have already published a series of books in the form of questions and answers on miscellaneous topics, and by Allâh's Grace all those books have achieved great popularity and good attention of our respected readers, I hope that this collection will also get the good response of the readers.

The biographies of the Mothers of believers (Ummahât-ul-Mu'mineen رضي الله عنهن) have special significance for the Muslim men and women. These remind them how to follow the Prophetic way in their daily life, and encourage them to take their style of living as the perfect model for them.

These questions and answers regarding the Seerah of the Mothers of believers are based on the authentic sources of Ahadith and Seerah books which are indicated in the end of the treatise.

Finally, if what we have presented herein is correct, it is exclusively out of Allâh's Grace; but if there is any fault it is totally ours. Meanwhile I am grateful to all brothers who shared in the preparation of this collection and pray Allâh to keep us informed of the true knowledge of our ancestors, and accept this work as a humble effort of ours.
